International Mission Study

International Mission Study Promotion Kit

Promote the 2010 study like never before! This indispensable resource, totally self-contained in a complete promotion kit, contains colorful posters, maps, reproducible handouts and announcements, and additional promotional materials for the International Mission Study as well as a 24-page booklet that provides guidance in planning the study. Complete plans are provided for 2 ½-hour and 1-hour formats as well as recipes, crafts, decorating ideas, and games from Thailand. In other words, everything needed to make this an exciting mission study for your church!

The International Mission Study is an annual emphasis, usually in early December, to give church wide exposure to a particular area of international missions work. Study materials are provided for each age level, preschool through adult. The International Mission Study for 2010 is on Thailand.
